*Rule X, clause 1(k), Rules of the House of Representatives

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY RULES OF PROCEDURE*

Rule I

The Rules of the House of Representatives are the rules of the Committee on the Judiciary and its subcommittees with the following specific additions thereto.

Rule II—Committee Meetings

(a) The regular meeting day of the Committee on the Judiciary for the conduct of its business shall be on Tuesday of each week while the House is in session.

(b) Additional meetings may be called by the Chairman and a regular meeting of the Committee may be dispensed with when, in the judgment of the Chairman, there is no need therefor.

(c) At least 24 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays when the House is not in session) before each scheduled Committee or subcommittee meeting, each Member of the Committee or subcommittee shall be furnished a list of the bill(s) and subject(s) to be considered and/or acted upon at the meeting. Bills or subjects not listed shall be subject to a point of order unless their consideration is agreed to by a two-thirds vote of the Committee or subcommittee.

(d) The Chairman, with such notice to the ranking Minority Member as is practicable, may call and convene, as he considers necessary, additional meetings of the Committee for the consideration of any bill or resolution pending before the Committee or for the conduct of other Committee business. The Committee shall meet for such purpose pursuant to that call of the Chairman.

(e) Committee and subcommittee meetings for the transaction of business, i.e. meetings other than those held for the purpose of taking testimony, shall be open to the public except when the Committee or subcommittee determines by majority vote to close the meeting because disclosure of matters to be considered would endanger national security, would compromise sensitive law enforcement information, or would tend to defame, degrade or incriminate any person or otherwise would violate any law or rule of the House.

(f) Every motion made to the Committee and entertained by the Chairman shall be reduced to writing upon demand of any Member, and a copy made available to each Member present.

(g) For purposes of taking any action at a meeting of the full Committee or any subcommittee thereof, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of not less than one-third of the Members of the Committee or subcommittee, except that a full majority of the Members of the Committee or subcommittee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of reporting a measure or recommendation from the Committee or subcommittee, closing a meeting to the public, or authorizing the issuance of a subpoena.

Rule III—Hearings

(a) The Committee Chairman or any subcommittee chairman shall make public announcement of the date, place, and subject matter of any hearing to be conducted by it on any measure or matter at least one week before the commencement of that hearing. If the Chairman of the Committee, or the subcommittee, with the concurrence of the ranking Minority Member, determines determines there is good cause to begin the hearing sooner, or if the Committee or subcommittee so determines by majority vote, a quorum being present for the transaction of business, the Chairman or subcommittee chairman shall make the announcement at the earliest possible date.

(b) Committee and subcommittee hearings shall be open to the public except when the Committee or subcommittee determines by majority vote to close the meeting because disclosure of matters to be considered would endanger national security, would compromise sensitive law enforcement information, or would tend to defame, degrade, or incriminate any person or otherwise would violate any law or rule of the House.

*Adopted February 4, 1999

(c) For purposes of taking testimony and receiving evidence before the Committee or any subcommittee, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of two Members.

(d) In the course of any hearing each Member shall be allowed five minutes for the interrogation of a witness until such time as each Member who so desires has had an opportunity to question the witness.

Rule IV—Broadcasting

Whenever a hearing or meeting conducted by the Committee or any subcommittee is open to the public, those proceedings shall be open to coverage by television, radio, and still photography except when the hearing or meeting is closed pursuant to the Committee Rules of Procedure.

Rule V—Standing Subcommittees

(a) The full Committee shall have jurisdiction over the following subject matters: antitrust law, tort liability, including medical malpractice and product liability, legal reform generally, and such other legislative or oversight matters as determined by the Chairman.

(b) There shall be five standing subcommittees of the Committee on the Judiciary, with jurisdictions as follows:

(1) Subcommittee on Courts and Intellectual Property: copyright, patent and trademark law, administration of U.S. courts, Federal rules of Evidence, Civil, and Appellate Procedure, judicial ethics, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(2) Subcommittee on the Constitution: constitutional amendments, constitutional rights, federal civil rights laws, ethics in government, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(3) Subcommittee on Commercial and Administrative Law: bankruptcy and commercial law, bankruptcy judgeships, administrative law, independent counsel, state taxation affecting interstate commerce, interstate compacts, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(4) Subcommittee on Crime: Federal Criminal Code, drug enforcement, sentencing, parole and pardons, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, prisons, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(5) Subcommittee on Immigration and Claims: immigration and naturaluzation, admission of refugees, treaties, conventions and international agreements, claims against the United States, federal charters of incorporation, private immigration and claims bills, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(c) The Chairman of the Committee and ranking Minority Member thereof shall be ex officio Members, but not voting Members, of each subcommittee to which such Chairman or ranking Minority Member has not been assigned by resolution of the Committee. Ex officio Members shall not be counted as present for purposes of constituting a quorum at any hearing or meeting of such subcommittee.

Rule VI—Powers and Duties of Subcommittees

Each subcommittee is authorized to meet, hold hearings, receive evidence, and report to the full Committee on all matters referred to it or under its jurisdiction. Subcommittee chairmen shall set dates for hearings and meetings of their respective subcommittees after consultation with the Chairman and other subcommittee chairmen with a view toward avoiding simultaneous scheduling of full Committee and subcommittee meetings or hearings whenever possible.

Rule VII—Non-Legislative Reports

No report of the Committee or a subcommittee which does not accompany a measure or matter for consideration by the House shall be published unless all Members of the Committee or subcommittee issuing the report shall have been apprised of such report and given the opportunity to give notice of intention to file supplemental, additional, or dissenting views as part of the report. In no case shall the time in which to file such views be less than three calendar days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays when the House is not in session).

*Adopted February 4, 1999

Rule VIII—Committee Records

The records of the Committee at the National Archives and Records Administration shall be made available for public use according to the Rules of the House. The Chairman shall notify the ranking Minority Member of any decision to withhold a record otherwise available, and the matter shall be presented to the Committee for a determination on the written request of any Member of the Committee.

*Adopted February 4, 1999

IMPEACHMENT INQUIRY

WILLIAM JEFFERSON CLINTON
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

ONE HUNDRED FIFTH CONGRESS

Sept. 9, 1998—The House received a communication from Independent Counsel Kenneth W. Starr in conformity with the requirements of title 28, United States Code, section 595(c), submitting substantial and credible information that President William Jefferson Clinton committed acts that may constitute grounds for an impeachment.

Sept. 11, 1998—The House agreed to H.Res. 525, a resolution (reported by the Committee on Rules, H.Rept. 105-703) providing for a deliberative review by the Committee on the Judiciary of a communication from an independent counsel, and for the release thereof, and for other purposes. (363 yeas; 63 nays). [H.Res. 525 provides 1) for a review by the Committee on the Judiciary of the report of the Independent Counsel to determine whether sufficient grounds exist to recommend to the House that an impeachment inquiry be commenced; 2) that material submitted by the Independent Counsel shall be considered referred to the committee and that the portion of the material consisting of approximately 445 pages comprising an introduction, a narrative, and a statement of grounds shall be printed as a document of the House; 3) that the balance of such material shall be deemed to have been received in executive session but shall be released from that status on September 28, 1998, except as otherwise determined by the committee, and material so released shall immediately be submitted for printing as a document of the House; and 4) procedures for access to executive-session material and conduct of and attendance at meetings of the committee].

Sept. 11, 1998—Executive Communication No. 10849—a letter from Kenneth W. Starr, the Independent Counsel, transmitting a Referral to the United States House of Representatives filed in conformity with the requirements of title 28, United States Code, section 595(c)—referred to the Committee on the Judiciary and printed as House Document 105-310.

Sept. 17, 1998—The Committee met in executive session to consider the release of certain documents, records, and materials received from the Independent Counsel. (Votes printed in Committee Print, Serial No. 7).

Sept. 18, 1998—The Committee continued in executive session to consider the release of certain documents, records, and materials received from the Independent Counsel. The Committee agreed to release approximately 2,800 pages of the documents received by the House from the Office of the Independent Counsel (with redactions approved by the Committee and without certain material filed under seal with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas) and agreed to release the video version of the President's August 17, 1998 testimony before the grand jury. (Votes printed in Committee Print, Serial No. 7).

S.Res. 30, as amended, includes:

TITLE I—Procedures Concerning the Articles of Impeachment Against William Jefferson Clinton—provides that:

The deposition time for all witnesses be determined by the Senate Majority Leader and Minority Leader, as provided in S.Res. 16 and title II of S.Res. 30, and that all Senators have an opportunity to review all deposition material.

When the Senate convenes on the day after completion of depositions and the review period, it shall be in order for both the House managers and the President's counsel to move to resolve any objections made during any deposition; after resolution, it shall be in order for the House managers and/or the President's counsel to make a motion or motions to admit the deposition or portions thereof into evidence, whether transcribed or on videotape, and it shall then be in order for the two Leaders jointly to make motions for additional discovery because of new relevant evidence discovered during the depositions; and motions may also then be made for orders governing the presentation of evidence and/or testifying of witnesses before the Senate.

If no such motions are made, or following the completion of procedures authorized as a result of the votes on any motions, the President shall have up to 24 hours to make any motions dealing with testimony or evidence that the President's counsel deem appropriate.

If no such motions are made, or no witnesses are called to testify in the Senate, the Senate shall proceed to final arguments as provided in the impeachment rules waiving the two person rule contained in Rule XXII of the Rules of Procedure and Practice in the Senate When Sitting on Impeachment Trials for not to exceed 6 hours, equally divided. If motions are agreed to regarding new evidence or calling of new witnesses, this resolution is suspended.

At the conclusion of final arguments, the parties shall proceed in accordance with the rules of impeachment, provided however, that no motion with respect to reopening the record in the case shall be in order, and provided further, that it shall be in order for a Senator to offer a motion to suspend the rules to allow for open final deliberations with no amendments or motions to that motion in order; and the Senate shall proceed to vote on such motion.

Following that vote, and if no motions have been agreed to as provided above, and no motions are agreed to following the arguments, then the vote will occur on the articles of impeachment no later that 12:00 noon on Friday, February 12, 1999, if all motions are disposed of and final deliberations are completed.

TITLE II—To Authorize Issuance of Subpoenas to Take Depositions in the Trial of the Articles of Impeachment Against William Jefferson Clinton, President of the United States—provides that:

The Chief Justice of the United States, through the Secretary of the Senate, shall issue subpoenas for the taking of testimony on oral deposition to the following witnesses: Sidney Blumenthal, Monica S. Lewinsky, and Vernon E. Jordan, Jr.

The Sergeant at Arms is authorized to utilize the services of the Deputy Sergeant at Arms or any other employee of the Senate in serving the subpoenas.

Depositions authorized by this resolution shall be taken before, and presided over by, on behalf of the Senate, two Senators appointed by the Majority Leader and the Democratic Leader acting jointly, one of whom shall administer to witnesses the oath prescribed by Rule XXV. Acting jointly, the presiding officers shall have authority to rule, as an initial matter, upon any question arising out of the deposition. All objections to a question shall be noted by the presiding officers upon the record of the deposition but the examination shall proceed, and the witness shall answer such question. A witness may refuse to answer a question only when necessary to preserve a legally-recognized privilege, or constitutional right, and must identify such privilege cited if so refusing.

Examination of witnesses at depositions shall be conducted by the managers on the part of the House or their counsel and by counsel for the President (limited to 2 persons each side). Witnesses may by accompanied by counsel. The scope shall be limited to the subject matters reflected in the Senate record. The party taking a deposition shall present to the other party, at least 18 hours in advance, copies of all exhibits intended to be entered into the deposition. No exhibits outside of the Senate record shall be employed, except for articles and materials in the press, including electronic media. Any party may interrogate any witness as if declared adverse.

The depositions shall be videotaped and a transcript of the proceedings made. The depositions shall be conducted in private. Admission to any deposition will be limited to: the witness, counsel for the witness, managers on the part of the House, counsel for the managers, and the presiding officers; further, such persons whose presence is required to make and preserve a record of the proceedings in videotaped and transcript forms, and Senate staff members necessary to assist the presiding officers in presiding over the depositions, or for other purposes, as determined by the Majority Leader and the Democratic Leader. All present must maintain the confidentiality of the proceedings.

The presiding officers at the depositions shall file the videotaped and transcribed records of the depositions with the Secretary of the Senate, who shall maintain them as confidential proceedings of the Senate. The Sergeant at Arms is authorized to make available for review at secure locations any of the videotaped or transcribed deposition records to Senators, 1 designated staff member per Senator, and the Chief Justice. The Senate may direct the Secretary of the Senate to distribute such materials and to use whatever means of dissemination, including printing as Senate documents, printing in the Congressional Record, photo- and video-duplication, and electronic dissemination, he determines appropriate.

The depositions authorized by this resolution shall be deemed to be proceedings before the Senate for purposes of Rule XXIX of the Standing Rules of the Senate, S.Res. 259, One Hundredth Congress, First Session, sections 191, 192, 194, 288b, 288d, 288f of title 2, United States Code, sections 6002, 6005 of title 18, United States Code, and section 1365 of title 28, United States Code. The Secretary shall arrange for stenographic assistance, including videotaping, to record the depositions as provided in section 205. Such expenses as may be necessary shall be paid from the Appropriation Account—Miscellaneous Items in the contingent fund of the Senate.

The Majority and Minority Leaders, acting jointly, may make any other provision for the orderly and fair conduct of these depositions as they deem appropriate.

The Secretary shall notify the managers on the part of the House and the counsel for the President of this resolution.

Jan. 28, 1999—The Senate agreed to a unanimous consent request that the time and place to take depositions in the trial of the articles of impeachment against William Jefferson Clinton be decided jointly by the Majority Leader and the Democratic Leader, and shall be set forth in each subpoena; that the opportunity for taking depositions of Monica S. Lewinsky, Vernon E. Jordan, Jr., and Sidney Blumenthal expires when the Senate convenes on Thursday, February 4, 1999; and that each deposition may last no more than 8 hours, unless the majority leader and the Democratic leader determine on a deposition-by-deposition basis to extend the time allotted for examination, shall be divided equally between the parties, and time consumed by objections shall not be charged to either objecting party. (Subsequently it was announced that the depositions will begin on Monday, February 1, 1999).

Feb. 1, 1999—Monica S. Lewinsky deposed. (Excerpts admitted into evidence printed in the February 4, 1999 Congressional Record, pages S1212-S1229).
