COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY JURISDICTION*

- (1) Judicial proceedings, civil and criminal generally.
- (2) Apportionment of Representatives.
- (3) Bankruptcy, mutiny, espionage, and counterfeiting.
- (4) Civil liberties.
- (5) Constitutional amendments.
- (6) Federal courts and judges.
- (7) Immigration and naturalization.
- (8) Interstate compacts generally.
- (9) Local courts in the Territories and possessions.
- (10) Measures relating to claims against the United States.
- (11) Meetings of Congress, attendance of Members and their acceptance of incompatible offices.
- (12) National penitentiaries.
- (13) Patent Office.
- (14) Patents, copyrights, and trademarks.
- (15) Presidential succession.
- (16) Protection of trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies.
- (17) Revision and codification of the Statutes of the United States.
- (18) State and Territorial boundary lines.
- (19) Communist and other subversive activities affecting the internal security of the United States.

This committee dates from 1813 (IV, 4054). The essential jurisdiction as defined in the rule was made effective January 2, 1947, as a part of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 812), and combined the Committees on Revision of Laws (created 1868, IV, 4293), Patents (created in 1837, IV, 4254), Immigration and Naturalization (created in 1893, IV, 4309), Claims (created in 1794, IV, 4262), and War Claims (created in 1883, IV, 4269). Effective January 3, 1975 (H.Res. 988, 93rd Congress, p. 34470), the committee's jurisdiction over holidays and celebrations was transferred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service (cl. 1(o)(7), Rule X). On January 14, 1975 (H.Res. 5, 94th Congress, p. 20), the Committee on Internal Security was abolished and jurisdiction over communist and other subversive activities affecting the internal security of the United States was transferred to the committee (par. 19). A provision in the latter amendment to this clause, transferring records and staff of the Internal Security Committee to the Judiciary Committee, was deleted as obsolete on January 4, 1977 (H.Res. 5, 95th Cong., pp. 53-70). Under paragraph 15, the committee has jurisdiction over Presidential nominations to fill vacancies in the office of Vice President, submitted pursuant to the 25th Amendment (October 13, 1973, p. 34032; August 20, 1974, p. 29366), and the committee has reported Articles of Impeachment of the President (August 20, 1974, pp. 29219-81). Where the House had voted impeachment, members of the Committee have been appointed as managers on the part of the House in presenting the charges to the Senate for trial (H.Res. 501, 99th Congress, July 22, 1986, p. —; H.Res. 511, 100th Congress, Aug. 3, 1988, p. —; H.Res. 12, 101st Congress, Jan. 3, 1989, p. —).

It considers charges against judges of the United States courts (IV, 4062), legislative propositions relating to the service of the Department of Justice (IV, 4067), bills relating to local courts in the District of Columbia, Alaska, and the Territories (IV, 4068), the establishment of a court of patent appeals (IV, 4075), relations of labor to courts and corporations (IV, 4072), crimes, penalties, extradition (IV, 4069; VII, 1747), construction and management of national penitentiaries (IV, 4070), matters relating to trusts and corporations (IV, 4057, 4059, 4060; VII, 1764), claims of States against the United States (IV, 4080), general legislation relating to international and other claims (IV, 4078, 4079, 4081), bills relating to the office of President (IV, 4077), to the flag (IV, 4055), bankruptcy (IV, 4065), removal of political disabilities (IV, 4058), prohibition of traffic in intoxicating liquors (IV, 4061; VII, 1773), mutiny and willful destruction of vessels (IV, 4145), counterfeiting (IV, 4071; VII, 1753), settlement of State and Territorial boundary lines (IV, 4060; VII, 1768), meeting of Congress and attendance of Members and their acceptance of incompatible offices (IV, 4077; VI, 65). This committee also has jurisdiction over joint resolutions proposing amendments to the Constitution (IV, 4056; VII, 1779). It also reports on important questions of law relating to subjects naturally within the jurisdiction of other committees (IV, 4063).

The committee also has jurisdiction over bills regulating the authority of States to impose taxes on interstate commerce (June 18, 1959, p. 11317), imposing conflict of interest standards and civil and criminal penalties relating thereto on government employees (Feb. 25, 1960, p. 3484), establishing an Academy of Criminal Justice (Apr. 5, 1965, p. 6822), to eliminate racketeering in the interstate sale of cigarettes (Feb. 9, 1972, p. 3429), providing workmen's compensation for non-U.S. employed firemen killed during civil disorder (May 6, 1968, p. 11798), authorizing the Attorney General to consent to a modification of a certain trust on behalf of the Library of Congress (Aug. 17, 1959, p. 16051), bills amending an omnibus pension act to increase the amount of pension granted a certain class of persons (Feb. 15, 1960, p. 2523), imposing criminal sanctions under the Controlled Substances Act (Nov. 14, 1983, p. —), and the committee has exclusive jurisdiction over the Legal Services Corporation (Nov. 19, 1975, p. 37288) and over the extension of workmen's benefits to non-Federal policemen and firemen (Dec. 12, 1975, p. 40204). The committee has joint jurisdiction with the Committee on Education and Labor over bills to amend the Walsh-Healey Act regarding hours of work under government contracts (May 15, 1985, p. 11946).

The committee has the general oversight responsibility as set forth in cl. 2(b), Rule X.

*Rule X, clause 1(m), Rules of the House of Representatives

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY RULES OF PROCEDURE*

Rule I

The Rules of the House of Representatives are the rules of the Committee on the Judiciary and its subcommittees with the following specific additions thereto.

Rule II—Committee Meetings

- (a) The regular meeting day of the Committee on the Judiciary for the conduct of its business shall be on Tuesday of each week while the Congress is in session.
- (b) Additional meetings may be called by the Chairman and a regular meeting of the Committee may be dispensed with when, in the judgment of the Chairman, there is no need therefor.
- (c) At least 24 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) before each scheduled Committee or subcommittee meeting, each Member of the Committee or subcommittee shall be furnished a list of the bill(s) and subject(s) to be considered and/or acted upon at the meeting. Bills or subjects not listed shall be subject to a point of order unless their consideration is agreed to by a two-thirds vote of the Committee or subcommittee.
- (d) The Chairman, with such notice to the ranking Minority Member as is practicable, may call and convene, as he considers necessary, additional meetings of the Committee for the consideration of any bill or resolution pending before the Committee or for the conduct of other Committee business. The Committee shall meet for such purpose pursuant to that call of the Chairman.
- (e) Committee and subcommittee meetings for the transaction of business, i.e., meetings other than those held for the purpose of taking testimony, shall be open to the public except when the Committee or subcommittee, by majority vote, determines otherwise.
- (f) Every motion made to the Committee and entertained by the Chairman shall be reduced to writing upon the demand of any Member, and a copy made available to each Member present.
- (g) In all subcommittee proceedings where a vote on a motion to report a bill to the full Committee results in a tie, such bill shall be reported to the full Committee without recommendation.
- (h) For purposes of taking any action at a meeting of the full Committee or any subcommittee thereof, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of not less than one-third of the Members of the Committee or subcommittee, except that a full majority of the Members of the Committee or subcommittee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of reporting a measure or recommendation from the Committee or subcommittee, closing a meeting to the public, or authorizing the issuance of a subpoena.
- (i) A complete transcript shall be made of any full Committee meeting, or any portion thereof, upon the request of any Member of the Committee made before the close of business of the preceding day, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.

Rule III—Hearings

- (a) The Committee or any subcommittee shall make public announcement of the date, place, and subject matter of any hearing to be conducted by it on any measure or matter at least one week before the commencement of that hearing, unless the Committee or the subcommittee before which such hearing is scheduled, determines that there is good cause to begin such hearing at an earlier date, in which event it shall make public announcement at the earliest possible date.
- (b) Committee and subcommittee hearings shall be open to the public except when the Committee or subcommittee, by majority vote, determines otherwise.

*Adopted January 21, 1993

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY RULES OF PROCEDURE*

- (c) For purposes of taking testimony and receiving evidence before any subcommittee, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of two Members. For purposes of taking testimony and receiving evidence before the full Committee, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of 10 Members.
- (d) In the course of any hearing, each Member shall be allowed five minutes for the interrogation of a witness until such time as each Member who so desires has had an opportunity to question the witness.

Rule IV—Proxy Voting

A vote by any Member of the Committee, with respect to any measure or matter being considered in the Committee or in subcommittee, may be cast by proxy if the proxy authorization is in writing, asserts that the Member is absent on official business or is otherwise unable to be present at the meeting of the Committee, designates the person who is to execute the proxy authorization, and is limited to a specific measure or matter and any amendments or motions pertaining thereto; except that a Member may authorize a general proxy for motions to recess, adjourn or other procedural matters. Each proxy to be effective shall be signed by the Member assigning his or her vote and shall contain the date and time that the proxy is signed. Proxies may not be counted for a quorum.

Rule V—Broadcasting

When approved by a majority vote, an open meeting or hearing of the Committee or a subcommittee may be covered, in whole or in part, by television broadcast, radio broadcast, and still photography, or by any of such methods of coverage, subject to the provisions of House Rule XI, clause (3). In order to enforce the provisions of said rule or to maintain an acceptable standard of dignity, propriety, and decorum, the Chairman may order such alteration, curtailment, or discontinuance of coverage as he determines necessary.

Rule VI—Standing Subcommittees

- (a) There shall be six standing subcommittees of the Committee on the Judiciary, with jurisdictions as follows:
 - (1) Subcommittee on Economic and Commercial Law: Antitrust, bankruptcy, commercial law, economic regulation generally, judgeships, Federal budget matters, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.
 - (2) Subcommittee on Civil and Constitutional Rights: Civil rights and liberties, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.
 - (3) Subcommittee on International Law, Immigration, and Refugees: Treaties and international agreements, citizenship, passports, foreign sovereign immunity, immigration and naturalization, admission of refugees, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.
 - (4) Subcommittee on Intellectual Property and Judicial Administration: Patents, trademarks, copyrights, court operations and administration, U.S. Attorneys and U.S. Marshals, Federal Rules of Evidence and Civil and Appellate Procedure, prisons, judicial ethics, RICO, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.
 - (5) Subcommittee on Crime and Criminal Justice: Federal Criminal Code, drug enforcement, pretrial services, sentencing, parole and pardons, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.
 - (6) Subcommittee on Administrative Law and Governmental Relations: Administrative law, claims against the United States, ethics in government, legal services, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.
- (b) The Chairman of the Committee and the ranking Minority Member thereof shall be ex officio Members, but not voting Members, of each subcommittee to which such Chairman or ranking Minority Member has not been assigned by resolution of the Committee. Ex officio Members shall not be counted as present for purposes of constituting a quorum at any hearing or meeting of such subcommittee.

*Adopted January 21, 1993

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY RULES OF PROCEDURE*

Rule VII—Powers and Duties of Subcommittees

Each subcommittee is authorized to meet, hold hearings, receive evidence, and report to the full Committee on all matters referred to it or under its jurisdiction. Subcommittee chairmen shall set dates for hearings and meetings of their respective subcommittees after consultation with the Chairman and other subcommittee chairmen with a view toward avoiding simultaneous scheduling of full Committee and subcommittee meetings or hearings whenever possible.

Rule VIII—Non-Legislative Reports

No report of the Committee or a subcommittee which does not accompany a measure or matter for consideration by the House shall be published unless all Members of the Committee or subcommittee issuing the report shall have been apprised of such report and been given the opportunity to give notice of intention to file supplemental, additional, or dissenting views as a part of the report. In no case shall the time in which to file such views be less than three calendar days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays).

Rule IX—Committee Records

The records of the Committee at the National Archives and Records Administration shall be made available for public use in accordance with Rule XXXVI of the Rules of the House of Representatives. The Chairman shall notify the ranking Minority Member of any decision, pursuant to clause 3(b)(3) or clause 4(b) of the rule, to withhold a record otherwise available, and the matter shall be presented to the Committee for a determination on the written request of any Member of the Committee.

HARMAN, MRS. ROUKEMA, MR. COMBEST, MR. EHLERS, AND MS. ENGLISH OF ARIZONA

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation.

Feb. 17, 1993—Referred to the Subcommittee on Economic and Commercial Law.

Feb. 24, 1994—Discharge petition (No. 14) filed by Mr. Stenholm on H.Res. 331, a rule resolution referred to the Committee on Rules, providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103.

Feb. 24, 1994—Motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from consideration of H.Res. 331 (providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103) placed on the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees, 218 Members having signed the discharge petition.

Mar. 11, 1994—The House agreed that it be in order to consider H.Res. 331 (providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103) on March 16, 1994, and that the period of general debate provided in H.Res. 331 be reduced to six hours.

Mar. 16, 1994—The House adopted the rule (H.Res. 331) discharging the Committee on the Judiciary from further consideration of H.J.Res. 103 and providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103 with six hours of general debate, waiving all points of order, making in order certain amendments, providing adoption of substitute amendments to be under “king-of-the-hill” (only the last substitute amendment adopted to be considered as finally adopted), providing for one motion to recommit with or without instructions, and providing for the consideration of a comparable resolution if passed by the Senate. (387 yeas; 22 nays).

Mar. 16, 1994—The House disagreed to the Kyl substitute amendment that sought to limit Federal outlays to 19% of the gross national product for that year, unless the requirement is waived by a 3/5-majority vote of the entire membership of the Senate and House of Representatives; and to authorize a Presidential line-item veto of any bill containing any item of spending authority. (179 yeas; 242 noes).

Mar. 17, 1994—Executive Communication No. 2791 received from the President of the United States reaffirming his opposition to H.J.Res. 103. (House Document 103-223).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House disagreed to the Barton amendment that sought to prohibit revenues from growing faster than the rate of increase in national income in the second prior fiscal year, unless a 3/5 vote of the total membership of both the House of Representatives and the Senate is taken to approve a specific tax increase. (213 yeas; 215 noes).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House agreed to the Barton amendment (above) on a separate vote required by the Rules of the House, the votes of the Delegates having been decisive on the previous vote. (211 yeas; 204 nays).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House disagreed to the Wise amendment that sought to require that the operating budget of the Federal Government be balanced, while a separate capital budget for investments that provide long-term economic returns is established; exempt Social Security and the Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund from balanced budget calculations; and to provide that only under certain circumstances would Congress be permitted to run a deficit (war, a serious military threat, or a recession). (111 yeas; 318 noes).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House agreed to the Stenholm substitute amendment that changes the effective date from 1999 to 2001 or the second fiscal year after ratification, whichever is later.

Mar. 17, 1994—Failed passage by the House, two-thirds not voting in the affirmative. (271 yeas; 153 nays).
