COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY JURISDICTION*

(1) Judicial proceedings, civil and criminal generally.

(2) Apportionment of Representatives.

(3) Bankruptcy, mutiny, espionage, and counterfeiting.

(4) Civil liberties.

(5) Constitutional amendments.

(6) Federal courts and judges.

(7) Immigration and naturalization.

(8) Interstate compacts generally.

(9) Local courts in the Territories and possessions.

(10) Measures relating to claims against the United States.

(11) Meetings of Congress, attendance of Members and their acceptance of incompatible offices.

(12) National penitentiaries.

(13) Patent Office.

(14) Patents, copyrights, and trademarks.

(15) Presidential succession.

(16) Protection of trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies.

(17) Revision and codification of the Statutes of the United States.

(18) State and Territorial boundary lines.

(19) Communist and other subversive activities affecting the internal security of the United States.

This committee dates from 1813 (IV, 4054). The essential jurisdiction as defined in the rule was made effective January 2, 1947, as a part of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 812), and combined the Committees on Revision of Laws (created 1868, IV, 4293), Patents (created in 1837, IV, 4254), Immigration and Naturalization (created in 1893, IV, 4309), Claims (created in 1794, IV, 4262), and War Claims (created in 1883, IV, 4269). Effective January 3, 1975 (H.Res. 988, 93rd Congress, p. 34470), the committee's jurisdiction over holidays and celebrations was transferred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service (cl. 1(o)(7), Rule X). On January 14, 1975 (H.Res. 5, 94th Congress, p. 20), the Committee on Internal Security was abolished and jurisdiction over communist and other subversive activities affecting the internal security of the United States was transferred to the committee (par. 19). A provision in the latter amendment to this clause, transferring records and staff of the Internal Security Committee to the Judiciary Committee, was deleted as obsolete on January 4, 1977 (H.Res. 5, 95th Cong., pp. 53-70). Under paragraph 15, the committee has jurisdiction over Presidential nominations to fill vacancies in the office of Vice President, submitted pursuant to the 25th Amendment (October 13, 1973, p. 34032; August 20, 1974, p. 29366), and the committee has reported Articles of Impeachment of the President (August 20, 1974, pp. 29219-81). Where the House had voted impeachment, members of the Committee have been appointed as managers on the part of the House in presenting the charges to the Senate for trial (H.Res. 501, 99th Congress, July 22, 1986, p. —; H.Res. 511, 100th Congress, Aug. 3, 1988, p. —; H.Res. 12, 101st Congress, Jan. 3, 1989, p. —).

It considers charges against judges of the United States courts (IV, 4062), legislative propositions relating to the service of the Department of Justice (IV, 4067), bills relating to local courts in the District of Columbia, Alaska, and the Territories (IV, 4068), the establishment of a court of patent appeals (IV, 4075), relations of labor to courts and corporations (IV, 4072), crimes, penalties, extradition (IV, 4069; VII, 1747), construction and management of national penitentiaries (IV, 4070), matters relating to trusts and corporations (IV, 4057, 4059, 4060; VII, 1764), claims of States against the United States (IV, 4080), general legislation relating to international and other claims (IV, 4078, 4079, 4081), bills relating to the office of President (IV, 4077), to the flag (IV, 4055), bankruptcy (IV, 4065), removal of political disabilities (IV, 4058), prohibition of traffic in intoxicating liquors (IV, 4061; VII, 1773), mutiny and willful destruction of vessels (IV, 4145), counterfeiting (IV, 4071; VII, 1753), settlement of State and Territorial boundary lines (IV, 4060; VII, 1768), meeting of Congress and attendance of Members and their acceptance of incompatible offices (IV, 4077; VI, 65). This committee also has jurisdiction over joint resolutions proposing amendments to the Constitution (IV, 4056; VII, 1779). It also reports on important questions of law relating to subjects naturally within the jurisdiction of other committees (IV, 4063).

*Rule X, clause 1(m), Rules of the House of Representatives

The committee also has jurisdiction over bills regulating the authority of States to impose taxes on interstate commerce (June 18, 1959, p. 11317), imposing conflict of interest standards and civil and criminal penalties relating thereto on government employees (Feb. 25, 1960, p. 3484), establishing an Academy of Criminal Justice (Apr. 5, 1965, p. 6822), to eliminate racketeering in the interstate sale of cigarettes (Feb. 9, 1972, p. 3429), providing workmen's compensation for non-U.S. employed firemen killed during civil disorder (May 6, 1968, p. 11798), authorizing the Attorney General to consent to a modification of a certain trust on behalf of the Library of Congress (Aug. 17, 1959, p. 16051), bills amending an omnibus pension act to increase the amount of pension granted a certain class of persons (Feb. 15, 1960, p. 2523), imposing criminal sanctions under the Controlled Substances Act (Nov. 14, 1983, p. ——), and the committee has exclusive jurisdiction over the Legal Services Corporation (Nov. 19, 1975, p. 37288) and over the extension of workmen's benefits to non-Federal policemen and firemen (Dec. 12, 1975, p. 40204). The committee has joint jurisdiction with the Committee on Education and Labor over bills to amend the Walsh-Healey Act regarding hours of work under government contracts (May 15, 1985, p. 11946).

The committee has the general oversight responsibility as set forth in cl. 2(b), Rule X.

*Rule X, clause 1(m), Rules of the House of Representatives

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY RULES OF PROCEDURE*

Rule I

The Rules of the House of Representatives are the rules of the Committee on the Judiciary and its subcommittees with the following specific additions thereto.

Rule II—Committee Meetings

(a) The regular meeting day of the Committee on the Judiciary for the conduct of its business shall be on Tuesday of each week while the Congress is in session.

(b) Additional meetings may be called by the Chairman and a regular meeting of the Committee may be dispensed with when, in the judgment of the Chairman, there is no need therefor.

(c) At least 24 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) before each scheduled Committee or subcommittee meeting, each Member of the Committee or subcommittee shall be furnished a list of the bill(s) and subject(s) to be considered and/or acted upon at the meeting. Bills or subjects not listed shall be subject to a point of order unless their consideration is agreed to by a two-thirds vote of the Committee or subcommittee.

(d) The Chairman, with such notice to the ranking Minority Member as is practicable, may call and convene, as he considers necessary, additional meetings of the Committee for the consideration of any bill or resolution pending before the Committee or for the conduct of other Committee business. The Committee shall meet for such purpose pursuant to that call of the Chairman.

(e) Committee and subcommittee meetings for the transaction of business, i.e., meetings other than those held for the purpose of taking testimony, shall be open to the public except when the Committee or subcommittee, by majority vote, determines otherwise.

(f) Every motion made to the Committee and entertained by the Chairman shall be reduced to writing upon the demand of any Member, and a copy made available to each Member present.

(g) In all subcommittee proceedings where a vote on a motion to report a bill to the full Committee results in a tie, such bill shall be reported to the full Committee without recommendation.

(h) For purposes of taking any action at a meeting of the full Committee or any subcommittee thereof, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of not less than one-third of the Members of the Committee or subcommittee, except that a full majority of the Members of the Committee or subcommittee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of reporting a measure or recommendation from the Committee or subcommittee, closing a meeting to the public, or authorizing the issuance of a subpoena.

(i) A complete transcript shall be made of any full Committee meeting, or any portion thereof, upon the request of any Member of the Committee made before the close of business of the preceding day, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.

Rule III—Hearings

(a) The Committee or any subcommittee shall make public announcement of the date, place, and subject matter of any hearing to be conducted by it on any measure or matter at least one week before the commencement of that hearing, unless the Committee or the subcommittee before which such hearing is scheduled, determines that there is good cause to begin such hearing at an earlier date, in which event it shall make public announcement at the earliest possible date.

(b) Committee and subcommittee hearings shall be open to the public except when the Committee or subcommittee, by majority vote, determines otherwise.

*Adopted February 5, 1991

(c) For purposes of taking testimony and receiving evidence before any subcommittee, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of two Members. For purposes of taking testimony and receiving evidence before the full Committee, a quorum shall be constituted by the presence of 10 Members.

(d) In the course of any hearing, each Member shall be allowed five minutes for the interrogation of a witness until such time as each Member who so desires has had an opportunity to question the witness.

Rule IV—Proxy Voting

A vote by any Member of the Committee, with respect to any measure or matter being considered in the Committee or in subcommittee, may be cast by proxy if the proxy authorization is in writing, asserts that the Member is absent on official business or is otherwise unable to be present at the meeting of the Committee, designates the person who is to execute the proxy authorization, and is limited to a specific measure or matter and any amendments or motions pertaining thereto; except that a Member may authorize a general proxy for motions to recess, adjourn or other procedural matters. Each proxy to be effective shall be signed by the Member assigning his or her vote and shall contain the date and time that the proxy is signed. Proxies may not be counted for a quorum.

Rule V—Broadcasting

When approved by a majority vote, an open meeting or hearing of the Committee or a subcommittee may be covered, in whole or in part, by television broadcast, radio broadcast, and still photography, or by any of such methods of coverage, subject to the provisions of House Rule XI, clause (3). In order to enforce the provisions of said rule or to maintain an acceptable standard of dignity, propriety, and decorum, the Chairman may order such alteration, curtailment, or discontinuance of coverage as he determines necessary.

Rule VI—Standing Subcommittees

(a) There shall be six standing subcommittees of the Committee on the Judiciary, with jurisdictions as follows:

(1) Subcommittee on Economic and Commercial Law: Antitrust, bankruptcy, commercial law, economic regulation generally, judgeships, Federal budget matters, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(2) Subcommittee on Civil and Constitutional Rights: Civil rights and liberties, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(3) Subcommittee on International Law, Immigration, and Refugees: Treaties and international agreements, citizenship, passports, foreign sovereign immunity, immigration and naturalization, admission of refugees, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(4) Subcommittee on Intellectual Property and Judicial Administration: Patents, trademarks, copyrights, court operations and administration, U.S. Attorneys and U.S. Marshals, Federal Rules of Evidence and Civil and Appellate Procedure, prisons, judicial ethics, RICO, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(5) Subcommittee on Administrative Law and Governmental Relations: Administrative law, claims against the United States, ethics in government, legal services, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(6) Subcommittee on Crime and Criminal Justice: Federal Criminal Code, drug enforcement, pretrial services, sentencing, parole and pardons, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

(b) The Chairman of the Committee and the ranking Minority Member thereof shall be ex officio Members, but not voting Members, of each subcommittee to which such Chairman or ranking Minority Member has not been assigned by resolution of the Committee. Ex officio Members shall not be counted as present for purposes of constituting a quorum at any hearing or meeting of such subcommittee.

*Adopted February 5, 1991

Rule VII—Powers and Duties of Subcommittees

Each subcommittee is authorized to meet, hold hearings, receive evidence, and report to the full Committee on all matters referred to it or under its jurisdiction. Subcommittee chairmen shall set dates for hearings and meetings of their respective subcommittees after consultation with the Chairman and other subcommittee chairmen with a view toward avoiding simultaneous scheduling of full Committee and subcommittee meetings or hearings whenever possible.

Rule VIII—Non-Legislative Reports

No report of the Committee or a subcommittee which does not accompany a measure or matter for consideration by the House shall be published unless all Members of the Committee or subcommittee issuing the report shall have been apprised of such report and been given the opportunity to give notice of intention to file supplemental, additional, or dissenting views as a part of the report. In no case shall the time in which to file such views be less than three calendar days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays).

Rule IX—Committee Records

The records of the Committee at the National Archives and Records Administration shall be made available for public use in accordance with Rule XXXVI of the Rules of the House of Representatives. The Chairman shall notify the ranking Minority Member of any decision, pursuant to clause 3(b)(3) or clause 4(b) of the rule, to withhold a record otherwise available, and the matter shall be presented to the Committee for a determination on the written request of any Member of the Committee.

*Adopted February 5, 1991

Apr. 24, 1991—Reported favorably to the House, amended, by Mr. Ford of Michigan, Committee on Education and Labor. (H.Rept. 102-40, part 1).

May 17, 1991—Reported favorably to the House by Mr. Brooks, Committee on the Judiciary. (H.Rept. 102-40, part 2) (Union Calendar).

May 29, 1991—Rule hearing by the Committee on Rules.

May 30, 1991—Committee on Rules granted a modified open rule providing for the consideration of H.R. 1 and three hours of general debate; making in order the Committee on Education and Labor amendment in the nature of a substitute now printed in the bill as an original bill for purposes of amendment; making in order only the following amendments printed in the report accompanying the rule resolution in the following order and in the manner specified in the report: (1) the Towns-Schroeder substitute, (2) the Michel substitute, and (3) the Brooks-Fish substitute, with consideration to be "king-of-the-hill" (only the last amendment adopted to be considered as finally adopted); waiving all points of order against all amendments printed in the report; and providing for one motion to recommit.

June 3, 1991—Mr. Wheat, Committee on Rules, favorably reported H.Res. 162, the rule providing for the consideration of H.R. 1. (H.Rept. 102-83) (House Calendar).

June 4, 1991—A point of order against consideration of the rule (H.Res. 162) was overruled.

June 4, 1991—The House ordered the previous question on consideration of the rule (H.Res. 162). (259 yeas; 165 nays).

June 4, 1991—The House adopted the rule (H.Res. 162). (247 ayes; 175 noes).

June 4, 1991—The House rejected the Towns-Schroeder amendment in the nature of a substitute that sought to explicitly authorize unlimited compensatory and punitive damages for violations of title VII of the Civil Rights Act; set a difference in the definition of "business necessity" as a defense against disparate impact practices; exclude provisions in the bill establishing a Glass Ceiling Commission and a Labor Department program regarding pay equity technical assistance; exclude language regarding hiring or promotion quotas; and amend existing law banning racial discrimination in virtually all aspects of private contracts. (152 ayes; 277 noes).

June 4, 1991—The House rejected the Michel amendment in the nature of a substitute that sought to include the provisions of the Administration's legislative proposal, including language prohibiting "race norming" of employment tests; codify the definition of "business necessity" as found in Griggs and Beazer; not permit grouping in disparate impact cases; ensure the right of individuals to challenge consent decrees; provide damages of up to $150,000 for on-the-job harassment; remove attorney fee provisions in the bill; and to apply provisions prospectively, not retroactively. (162 ayes; 266 noes).

June 5, 1991—The House agreed to the Brooks-Fish amendment in the nature of a substitute that overturns five 1989 Supreme Court cases; clarifies the awarding of attorney fees in title VII cases; prohibits the use of quotas by employers as an employment practice; prohibits the practice of the adjustment of test scores based on race, sex, religion, or national origin ("race norming"); places a cap of $150,000 on punitive damages in title VII cases, or the amount of compensatory damages; and revises the standard of "business necessity" for businesses to justify an employment practice having a discriminatory impact. (264 ayes; 166 noes). (Short title amended to read "Civil Rights and Women's Equity in Employment Act of 1991").

June 5, 1991—The House adopted the amendment in the nature of a substitute as agreed to by the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union.

July 8, 1991—Referred to the Subcommittee on Economic and Commercial Law.

May 20, 1992—Discharge petition (No. 6) filed by Mr. Stenholm on H.Res. 450, a rule resolution referred to the Committee on Rules, providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 290.

May 20, 1992—Motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from consideration of H.Res. 450 (providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 290) placed on the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees, 218 Members having signed the discharge petition.

June 4, 1992—The House agreed to make it in order to consider H.Res. 450 (providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 290) on June 10 rather than June 8, 1992, and that the general debate time be expanded to nine hours.

June 10, 1992—The House adopted the rule (H.Res. 450) discharging the Committee on the Judiciary from further consideration of H.J.Res. 290 and providing for the consideration of H.J. Res. 290 with nine hours of general debate, waiving all points of order against consideration, making in order only those amendments contained in the rule with consideration to be "king-of-the-hill" (only the last amendment adopted to be considered as finally adopted), providing for one motion to recommit with or without instructions, and providing for the consideration of a comparable joint resolution if passed by the Senate.

June 10, 1992—Considered by the House.

June 11, 1992—The House disagreed to the Kyl amendment that sought to allow the President line-item veto authority in authorization and appropriation legislation; limit the total outlays for a fiscal year to 19% of the gross national product of that year; and require a three-fifths vote of the Congress to outlay any additional funds. (170 ayes; 258 noes).

June 11, 1992—The House disagreed to the Barton of Texas amendment that sought to require the Congress to adopt a statement of receipts and outlays for each fiscal year stating that outlays are not greater than the total receipts; require that there be no increase in the Federal debt amount unless three-fifths of the total membership of the House and Senate approve such an increase; and prohibit estimated revenues from growing faster than the rate of increase in the second prior fiscal year, unless the Congress, by a vote of three-fifths of the total membership of the House and Senate, passes legislation directed solely to approving specific tax increases. (200 ayes; 227 noes).

June 11, 1992—The House disagreed to the Gephardt amendment that sought to prohibit the Congress from approving higher total expenditures than the total proposed by the President; prohibit Congress from approving an unbalanced budget unless is was approved by a majority vote of the total membership of both Houses; exclude Social Security from the budget calculations; and require the President to send to the Congress for approval a budget in which expenditures do not exceed receipts, unless a Presidential declaration of national urgency accompanied the legislation. (103 ayes; 327 noes).

June 11, 1992—The House agreed to the Stenholm amendment requiring that the total outlays for any fiscal year not exceed the total receipts for that fiscal year unless three-fifths of the whole number of each House provide by law for a specific excess of outlays over receipts by a rollcall vote; that the limit on the debt of the United States not be increased unless three-fifths of the whole number of each House provide by law for a such an increase by a rollcall vote; and that no bill to increase revenue become law unless approved by a majority of the whole number of each House by a rollcall vote. (279 ayes; 153 noes).

June 11, 1992—The House rejected a motion to recommit H.J.Res. 290 to the Committee on the Judiciary.

June 11, 1992—Failed passage by the House, two-thirds not voting in the affirmative. (280 ayes; 153 noes).
